Firefighter Safety and Personnel Accountability
Self-Evaluation Worksheet

Check the appropriate boxes to evaluate the effectiveness of your department's Firefighter Safety & Personnel Accountability programs.

Firefighters often become 'lost in structures'. All too frequently, in the confusion of the fireground, the fact that they are in trouble goes unnoticed until it is too late. The Firefighter Safety/Personnel Accountability program in place in my department ensures that:

the Incident Commander is automatically notified immediately when one or more firefighters is in distress.

Yes No

the Incident Commander is aware of the name(s) of all firefighters who are in distress, and in need of the RIT Team.

Yes No

my department's program ensures that incident Firefighter Safety/Personnel Accountability information is updated automatically & continuously.

Yes No

The Incident Commander has ultimate responsibility for ensuring that fire/rescue incident RIT Team or Search & Rescue measures are instituted in a timely manner. My department's Firefighter Safety/Personnel Accountability program utilizes state-of-the-art equipment that automatically provides the following up-to-date information to ensure that:

the Incident Commander has a real time census of all personnel operating on the emergency scene.

Yes No

the Firefighter Safety/Personnel Accountability information is independent of timed sequence Personnel Accountability Reviews (PAR).

Yes No

the Incident Commander has the ability to send an Evacuation Signal to individual firefighters, groups of firefighters, or all firefighters operating on the scene when conditions deteriorate. My current evacuation mechanism provides a means for each individual to acknowledge receipt of the Evac Signal.

Yes No

If you answered NO to any of these questions, the Firefighter Safety/Personnel Accountability program currently in place in your department may need to be updated. Call Grace Industries' fire/rescue service professionals TODAY for a free consultation at:
